NOTES

JUG FISHING and float lines (except jugs or floats made of glass) and throw lines, trot lines, and bank lines are legal, unless otherwise posted. Hook and line limits as listed below also apply to this type of fishing.

HOOKS AND LINES: It shall be unlawful for any person to use, while fishing in this state in any lake, pond or reservoir or in their inlets, outlets and canals within one-half mile of such lake, pond, or reservoir, more than two lines with two hooks on each line. One hook shall mean a single, double, or treble pointed hook, and all hooks attached as a part of an artificial bait or lure shall be counted as one hook. THIS DOES NOT APPLY TO ICE FISHING.

ICE FISHING: Stream fishing regulations of 15 hooks apply to ice fishing.

STREAM FISHING: In stream fishing, it shall be unlawful for anyone to fish with a line having more than five hooks thereon, or more than 15 hooks in the aggregate or with artificial bait having more than three triple-ganghooks.

SPEARING: Carp, buffalo, suckers and other non-game fish may be speared between sunrise and sunset from April 1 to December 1.

AGE: All persons sixteen years of age or older must have a fishing permit for the current year. All nonresidents must purchase a permit except those anglers under 16 years of age who are accompanied by a parent or guardian possessing a nonresident fishing permit.

BAIT VENDOR'S PERMIT: Individuals, either resident or nonresident, over 16 years of age, selling minnows as bait for profit shall be required to purchase a bait vendor's permit. Cost is $10.

SHORT TERM PERMITS: Short-term nonresident permits are available. Cost is $3.00 for a 10-day permit.

TRANSFER OF PERMIT: It is unlawful for any person to borrow or use the permit of another or to lend or transfer his permit to another.

ANISE OIL and other scents that do not stun, kill, or harm fish are legal to use.

GAME FISH AS BAIT: Any game fish, taken by a legal method, may be used for bait. No seining of game fish of any size is legal.

ANGLING TIPS

WALLEYE: Troll deep and slow. Lure should not be more than 18 inches off the bottom. Stop boat after strike and plug back into the school. It is beneficial in some cases to have a trail lure of a different type behind the first lure. Distance apart from 18 inches to 3 feet.

WHITE BASS: Trolling is very effective in May and June. This fish schools and feeds in a zig-zag line. Live minnows on light spinning rigs are very effective, just where the shallow water breaks over into the deep water. When casting with minnows, leads should not be used. Lead should be used with minnows when trolling.

CRAPPIE: Black crappie usually prefer cold, quiet water, a hard bottom with some aquatic vegetation; white crappie like slow, sluggish, warm or cold water, with soft or mud bottom. Corks and leads when using minnows should be of the lightest, smallest type, since they are usually light biters. Crappie can be taken on lures of small size with little or no action. A slow retrieve is usually most productive.

In baiting worms, hook the worm through the middle and thread for about one inch, allowing both ends to be free to wiggle.

There are right and wrong ways to put minnows on hooks. When fishing with live minnows, where holes are deep and no casting is to be done, hook the minnow through the lips or just in front of the top (dorsal) fin. If hooking in the lips, be careful not to set the hook too far back into the lips, or the hook will pierce the brain of the minnow.

To place a grasshopper on the hook, turn the hopper belly up and insert the hook under the breast armor. Bring the hook out toward the back of the chest. Turn the hook over so the point faces the belly, then push it through and out of the back. The point of the hook should just protrude from the back between the wings. The weight of the hook being on the underside keeps the hopper right side up. To make hoppers more attractive it is best to pinch off their outer wings. This leaves the hopper's bright yellow or red wings showing.

Insects are not only an occasional tidbit but are almost constantly a part of the regular diet of all fresh water game fish. This is particularly evident in mid-summer when, in flagrant disregard of minnows and imitations alike, fish of every species break water in obvious quest of insect food.

GENERAL HINTS

1. The lighter the tackle, the more thrilling it is to catch a fish and is usually more productive on panfishes.
2. Always use leader of some type when plugging or bait fishing with the nylon type of lines.
3. When using corks while fishing, try to ease them in the water whenever possible.
4. A slow, frequent movement of the bait will catch more fish.
5. Take as many different baits with you fishing as possible.
6. On windy days fish the lee side of the lake, or fish the calm water and deeper than usual in windy water.
7. On lakes where there are a lot of boats during the day, fish early in the mornings, late in the evenings or at night.
8. Keep in mind the spawning times of different species of fishes and fish where they are likely to be spawning.
